Party Leader-Please Note:

There are inherent risks involved with wilderness boating and canoe trips which may result in injury, illness, or death to you and your party members. These risks include, but are not limited to high winds, isolated rapids and waterfalls, lightning, fire, falling objects, trip hazards, absence of quick medical help, and the fact that wilderness is a constantly changing environment. It is impossible for La Tourell's Resort & Outfitters to warn your party about specific risk situations. It is the responsibility of the party to evaluate each situation as it may occur.

Early Reservations are Advised!
